Public comment period for the revised development codes for Hinesville and Liberty County until November 15, 2011.

The Liberty Consolidated Planning Commission (LCPC) invites public comment on proposed revisions to the land development codes for Hinesville and unincorporated Liberty County.

On Tuesday, September 20th, the LCPC voted to publish the proposed revisions for public comment. Public comments will be received through Tuesday, November 15th. Upon completion of the public comment period, the LCPC will finalize the proposed revisions and hold a public hearing, after which a recommendation will be made to the Mayor and City Council of Hinesville as well as the Liberty County Board of Commissioners for adoption.

The timeline for the completion of the Development Codes revision is as follows:

- October 1, 2011 thru November 15, 2011 – Public Comment Period
- November 15, 2011 – Review public comment by LCPC
- December 20, 2011 - LCPC holds formal public hearing and makes final recommendation
- January, 2012 – LCPC forwards proposed development codes revision to Mayor and City Council of Hinesville and the Liberty County Board of Commissioners for consideration and adoption.

A draft copy of the revisions is available on the LCPC website at www.thelcpc.org. It may also be viewed at the offices of the LCPC at 306 North Main Street, Suite 1C in Hinesville between 8:30AM and 5PM. For further assistance, please call Jeff Ricketson at 912-408-2070 or email him at jricketson@thelcpc.org.
